Definitions:

Class – A numbered entry.

Collection - An assembly of kinds and/or cultivars (varieties) of plants, flowers, fruits or vegetables in one exhibit (class).

Cultivar – is a cultivated variety, simply known as a variety.

Dish – is a specified number or quantity of a fruit or vegetable constituting one entry which may be displayed directly on to the table, or on to a piece of fabric or in a receptacle, of any shape and made from any material.

Display – An exhibit in which attractiveness of arrangements and general effect are considered of more importance than they would have been had the schedule specified a “group” or a “collection”

Novice – A competitor who has not won a prize in that section at a previous Show.

Please do ask if you need any advice or help.

Rules for Exhibitors

1. The Show will be conducted in accordance with the rules and standards as stated in the RHS Show handbook 2016, except where under the schedule they obviously do not apply.
2. Competition for prizes in all sections is open to all irrespective of status.
3. Exhibits must be the property of the exhibitor, unless otherwise stated and have been in his/her possession for at least six months.
4. Number of Entries per household – only one person per household may compete in a class when the item is grown in the same garden or allotment. This does not apply to needlecraft, cookery, photography or Fuchsia class.
5. Only one entry per person per class.
6. The committee reserves the right to refuse any entry and in the event of such a refusal, it is not required to give a reason.
7. Prizes may be withheld or modified if the exhibits are considered unworthy of the prize offered.
8. Any Exhibit that does not comply with the description in the Show Schedule i.e. in size, number or quantity may be disqualified at the discretion of the Judge and given an NAS card which means 'Not According to Schedule'.
9. The decision of the Judge is final on the relative merits of the exhibits, but the committee reserves the right to refer any points in dispute to the Show Secretary for a decision.
10. Any protest must be made in writing and delivered to the Show Secretary by 3pm on the day of the Show.
11. After judging has taken place no exhibit may be altered or removed before 4.30pm, except by special permission of the Show Secretary.
12. The committee reserves the right for its official representative to visit by appointment, before or after the show, gardens from which plants, flowers, fruit or vegetables have been entered in order to satisfy that the conditions governing competitive exhibits are fulfilled.
13. Liability or Loss – all exhibits, personal property etc. will be at the risk of the exhibitors and the Society will not be liable for compensation for loss or damage from any cause whatsoever. Should a Show, for any reason, not be held, no exhibitor will have any claim on the Society.

Clearing-up: We would be most grateful if all exhibitors could help at the end of the show by emptying and stacking the vases in the containers provided.

THE SHOW TROPHIES & AWARDS 2023
